APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN BEAURAING, BELGIUM Nov. 29, 1932 – Jan. 3, 1933

15 years after the apparitions of Fatima, Our Lady appeared to five children, saying: "I am the Immaculate Virgin." Our Lady appeared with her heart golden and resplendent. On January 3, Our Lady said to Andree Degeimbre, one of the visionaries: "I am the Mother of God, the Queen of Heaven. Pray always, Goodbye!" She told Fernande: "Do you love my Son?" "Yes!", the girl exclaimed. "Do you love me?" "Oh, yes!" "Then sacrifice yourself for me." Our Lady appeared almost every day to these five children - 33 times in all. The content of her message was very brief but strong. Some tried to add to it, but the children kept the message in its original state. Friday, December 2, in response to questions the people had prodded them to ask Our Lady, she replied to the question, "Are you the Immaculate Virgin?" by nodding her head and opening her arms. "What do you want of us?" - she spoke for the first time. "ALWAYS BE GOOD." They answered her, "Yes. We will always be good." The response from the unbelievers when they heard this message was, "That's it?" Each night, prior to Our Lady's appearance, the children prayed the Rosary in a natural voice. However, once she arrived, their voices became much higher, and they prayed faster. By the end of the apparitions over 20,000 people were gathering each day to pray the rosary with the children. On December 29, as Mary was giving her farewell to the children, she opened her arms to expose a brilliant gold heart. This was the first time she had done this. Because of this, she is called THE LADY WITH THE GOLDEN HEART, referring to her Immaculate Heart. On December 30, she showed her golden heart to the children again, and said to them, "PRAY! PRAY VERY MUCH!" On January 1, 1933, she told them, "PRAY ALWAYS." At the last apparition she told Gilberte: "I will convert sinners." - and Andree: "I am the Mother of God, the Queen of Heaven. Pray always. Then she said "Goodbye" and disappeared. The five visionaries got married. A few years after the apparitions ended, World War II broke out. Hitler invaded Belgium. The Shrine of Our Lady of Beauraing became a light of Christian hope for the people of Belgium. In those difficult times, the faithful remembered what Our Lady had taught them about the love of Jesus and Our Lady's petition for sacrifice. The apparitions have been approved by the Holy See. Every year, more than 200,000 people visit the Shrine. The message of Our Lady was not for the visionaries alone, but for all of her children. Meditate on it. Live it. Respond to the cry of Our Mother.
