A DEVOUT EXERCISE FOR THE UNITY OF THE CHURCH – Raccolta #622

Ant. That they all may be one, as Thou, Father, in me and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

V. I say to thee, that thou art Peter R. And upon this rock I will build my Church.

Let us Pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, Who didst say to Thine Apostles: peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you, look not upon my sins, but upon the faith of Thy Church; and vouchsafe unto her that peace and unity which is agreeable to Thy will: Who livest and reignest God forever and ever. Amen. An indulgence of 300 days during the octave of prayers for the unity of the Church from the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter in Rom (Jan 18) to the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul (Jan. 25). A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions at the end of the devout exercise.

FEAST OF THE PURIFICATION: Beeswax candles will be blessed with a special blessing and a procession on the Feast of the Purification, Feb. 2nd. There will be plenty for all. A donation to help cover the cost would be appreciated.

Your Cross – St. Francis de Sales

The everlasting God has in His wisdom foreseen from eternity the cross that He now presents to you as a gift from His inmost heart. This cross He now sends you He has considered with His all-knowing eyes, understood with His divine mind, tested with His wise justice, warmed with loving arms and weighed with His own hands to see that it be not one inch too large and not one ounce too heavy for you. He has blessed it with His holy Name, anointed it with His consolation, taken one last glance at you and your courage, and then sent it to you from heaven, a special greeting from God to you, an alms of the all-merciful love of God.

There is no evil to be faced that Christ does not face with us. There is no enemy that Christ has not already conquered. There is no cross to bear that Christ has not already borne for us, and does not now bear with us.

Do not look forward in fear to the changes in life; rather, look to them with full hope that as they arise, God, whose very own you are, will lead you safely through all things; and when you cannot stand it, God will carry you in His arms. Do not fear what may happen tomorrow; the same understanding Father who cares for you today will take care of you then and every day.

He will either shield you from suffering or will give you unfailing strength to bear it.

Be at peace, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations.

It is good to mistrust ourselves, but how would that advantage us were we not to throw all our confidence on God and to wait on His mercy? If you feel no such confidence, cease not on that account from making these acts and from saying to Our Lord:

“Yet, O Lord, though I have no feeling of confidence in You, nevertheless, I know that You are my God, that I am all Yours, and that I have no hope but in Your goodness, so I abandon myself entirely into Your Hands.” It is always in our power to make these acts; although we have difficulty in performing them, still there is no impossibility.

Thus we testify faithfulness to Our Lord.
